Today's Passage: _____

First Step

Spend some time preparing your heart for the time you are about to spend with the Heavenly Father. Pray that God would remove distractions, clear your mind, and ready your heart for what He has for you through His Word.

Digging Deeper

Now, spend some time digging deeper into the passage by working through the following questions.

God: What does this passage reveal about God?

Man: What does this passage reveal about humanity (us)?

Focus: In one short sentence, what is the main idea of the passage?

Life: How can I apply the truths from the passage in my life?

Repentance: After reading this passage, my prayer is...

Conclusion

End your time with the Lord in prayer as well. Write down your prayer for next steps moving forward, along with who you are prayer for in your circle of influence.
